

CALENDAR NOTICE / MEDIA ADVISORY

2016 NoCoNet Job Fair

WHAT: The Northern Colorado Networking Group (NoCoNet) is hosting a free job fair with over 30 different employers looking to actively fill positions in Northern Colorado. Openings range from entry level to skilled and mid-level professional, covering a diverse range of businesses. The event is free to both job seekers and vendors.

WHEN: Monday, October 17, 2016
Active NoCoNet Members & Veterans with ID: 9:30am – 10:30am
General Public: 10:30am – 12:30pm

WHERE: Faith Evangelical Church
3920 South Shields Street, Fort Collins

WHO: NoCoNet is the premier networking and skill-building organization for job seekers in Northern Colorado. Membership is free.
We provide a free unparalleled resource for Employers and Recruiters seeking skilled local talent for full-time, contract, part-time, and temporary positions.
Our membership consists primarily of mid-career, highly-degreed professionals and certified skilled workers who represent most major disciplines and seek to advance their careers.

VETERANS: We are pleased to provide veterans early access, along with our active membership, to the participating employers and recruiters. Please bring some form of identification such as a Military ID card or your DD Form 214.

For more information, please contact the NoCoNet Employer Relations Committee at employerliaison@noconet.org.